This Charter, approved by the Company's Board of Directors, ensures that CHS is appropriately governed in accordance with the regulations governing higher education providers. The Charter identifies each board and committee's roles and responsibilities, and describes the protocols to be followed to perform their duties effectively. The Charter is to be read in conjunction with the Company's Constitution, and where there are any inconsistencies, the Constitution will prevail.

2. CHS GOVERNANCE FRAMEWORK

The Company's Constitution defines CHS's institution-wide governance framework, which identifies the relationship between CHS's management, its board of directors, shareholder(s), and students. The governance framework provides the structure within which CHS's strategic direction and objective of being an innovative, well-regarded, quality higher education provider is set.

The boards and committees that form CHS's governance framework each have specific roles and responsibilities and provide the mechanisms within which CHS operates and holds personnel accountable. Oversight of the Higher Education Standards Framework (Threshold Standards) 2021¹ (HESF) is shared amongst the boards and committees (identified below in Figure 1) and, together with the policy and processes implemented, ensures CHS continues to meet its regulatory obligations.

3. BOARD AND COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP PROTOCOLS

3.1 Background

CHS is committed to implementing processes and practices that will assure that the Independent membership of the governance boards/committees complements the internal ex officio appointments, thereby having sufficient collective competence, knowledge, skills, gender balance, and independence to conduct its business effectively.

For both the Board of Directors and the Academic Board, a Board Competency Skills matrix has been developed to identify these two boards' members' specific skills and expertise, ensuring that the collective membership provides CHS with an appropriate depth of higher education capability.

3.2 Board and Committee Composition

Each board/committee's composition is described in the relevant board/committee terms of reference presented within this Charter.

3.3 Criteria and Characteristics of Independent Members

An Independent member is defined as a person who is neither an employee, shareholder, officer, or owner of Education Centre Australia Pty Ltd or any of its associated entities ("ECA"). To qualify as an Independent member, the following additional criteria will apply:

- Does not have a direct or indirect material financial interest in ECA;
- Is not involved in the day-to-day management functions of ECA;
- Is sufficiently impartial and disconnected from CHS's operations, and in a position to act in CHS's best interests;
- Does not have a material personal interest in the outcome of a board/committee meeting;
- Is free of any interest, position, association, or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence their capacity to exercise independent judgement; and

- Has not been an Independent committee/board member of ECA for a period longer than ten years so that their independence may be compromised².
