

LOCATIONSydney and BrisbaneDURATION11 units in 2 years full-time or 4 years part-timeSTUDY OPTIONSOn-campus lectures and workshops or onlineINTAKESFebruary, June,
September
Intensive intakes available

Master of Health Management

CRICOS Code:106941G

Lead the future of healthcare with the Master of Health Management—built for ambitious professionals ready to step into management roles and influence outcomes across the health sector.

Who Is This Course For?

This postgraduate qualification prepares you for senior roles in healthcare organisations, combining advanced management expertise with the practical skills to lead change initiatives, strengthen eHealth and technology capability, and support evidence-based improvement through health research in today's evolving healthcare environment.

Entry Requirements

- Recognised Bachelor's degree (AQF 7) or higher in a health, business, management, social care or related discipline; and
- IELTS Academic 6.5 (minimum 6.0 in writing and speaking) or equivalent.

 Alternative entry requirements available, please check the CHS website. Admission is subject to genuine student requirements.*

Career Opportunities

- Health and Welfare Services Managers
Average salary: $145,000 AUD
- Health Information Manager
Average salary: $110,000 AUD
- Primary Health Organisation Manager
Average salary: $160,000 AUD

Source: www.seek.com.au/career-advice*

Course Structure

The Master of Health Management consists of 11 core units.

Core units (11):

- The Australian Healthcare System: Contemporary Challenges
- Governance, Safety and Quality in Healthcare
- Leadership and Management in Healthcare
- Evidence Based Practice in Healthcare
- Information Management and Technology in Healthcare
- Leadership and Collaborative Practice
- Change and Change Management in Healthcare
- Strategic and Organisational Planning for Health
- Health Statistics, Epidemiology and Critical Analysis
- Health Finance and Economics
- Capstone Unit

Pathways

Studying for the Master of Health Management provides flexible study options to enhance your knowledge, increase your skills and improve your career prospects. The program offers multiple study pathways, allowing you to enrol in the Master of Health Management directly or via Graduate Certificate (3 units) or Graduate Diploma (additional 3 units) as standalone qualifications that credit toward your Master's degree (additional 5 units).

Graduate Certificate in Health Management

CRICOS: 106939A

Duration: 3 units to be completed in 6 months

Graduate Diploma of Health Management

CRICOS: 106940H

Duration: 6 subjects to be completed in 1 year

Master of Health Management

CRICOS: 106941G

Duration: 11 subjects to be completed in 2 years

For more information or to apply visit CHS

